

At Stone Canyon, we know you want food that's fresh and healthy. That's why we get up early to chop fresh, locally sourced vegetables. That's why we make dough three times daily. That's why we serve only the highest quality ingredients, such as Mozzarella cheese from Grande and toppings from Hormel and Fontanini.

We choose the very best local products including Scimeca's Italian Sausage, McGonigle's Meats, hummus from The Hummus Co. and our desserts from Golden Boy Pies. We do this so that we can offer you the freshest customized pizzas, handcrafted sandwiches, delicious pastas and healthy salads.

We've been making our food from scratch and sourcing healthy, high quality local ingredients since the day we opened. Our commitment is to provide a relaxed dining experience that always exceeds your expectations. We've always done it that way, because that's who we are, not because we wanted to be like anyone else. In fact, we're sorta glad everyone else is finally catching up with us. We promise we'll never settle for just being "good enough".
